FASHION SHOW NETS $35,000

The annual Toronto Hospital Occupational Therapists Association (THOTA) Club's fashion show held on October 15, 1998 at the Inn on the Park raised an astounding $35,000 that will benefit clients at West Park Hospital.

The proceeds will be used to replace six electric door openers at the Gage Transition to Independent Living apartment building in downtown Toronto to provide easy access for clients who live there. Each door costs $2,000. The money will also help with the costs to renovate the Activities of Daily Living (ADL) apartment including new cupboards, new fixtures and bathroom equipment. The apartment, which was furnished and equipped by the THOTA Club in 1980, is a vital rehabilitation and assessment tool. In it, clients learn life skills in a safe environment and prepare to return to their homes.

Over the past 50 years, the THOTA Club has raised in excess of $400,000 to support equipment purchases and new services at West Park Hospital
